Investment Report – October 2026

J. Safra Sarasin has a Capital Ratio which is double that of most large European Banks and has now acquired 100% of Saxo Bank.

The majority of Client accounts* corrected mildly in October and have since so far held their ground in November after the Mid Term election AI Sell off. The Blue Democratic wave will likely lead to a redistribution and potentially a reduction of, US Government spending and this could push a rotation in equity sector valuations.

As part of a series featuring stocks in your portfolio, we review Copper use in Data Centres from Rio Tinto & BHP.

Portfolio Construction*

Pure Value Metrics Client Portfolios are built "bottom up" with a selection of companies found in the latest PVM Investment Matrix. They are very well diversified across Countries and Industry Sectors; the Companies and Sectors rotate over time with changes in their relative valuations.

The Pure Value Metrics Investment Matrix has currently the same low percentage portfolio equity exposure as Berkshire Hathaway, even if these are in different companies.

Yours Sincerely,

Richard-Mark Dodds
